—OF—

BANGOR & VICINITY

In consequence of the scarcity of Paper Stock it is feared that two-thirds of the Paper Mills in the country will have to close up, for want of the raw material. Do you want your newspaper (Whig or Courier) every morning and evening of a color nearly equal to the type itself? If not, then collect and forward to us WHITE RAGS and Books, and Newspapers, and send them to the where you will receive GOOD PRICES for them, in CASH or TRADE as you please.

For a long time past the Confederates have suffered from the want of good White Paper, on which to print their journals, many of which or months past have been printed on paper of the coarsest kind. It is to be hoped that the types of our presses in the North will not meet with a similar experience. There must be rags enough in the country to supply manufacturers, and they can be procured if those interested in the purchase of them exercise a little more than the usual energy and activity in discovering their whereabouts.

New York Commercial.

The undersigned will also pay CASH for any quantity of the following articles.

Woolen Rags, Manilla Rope, Hemp Rope, Grass Bittanias, Canvas, Brass, Pewter, Rubber, Lead, Zinc

American & Foreign Patents

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington (under the Act of 1837.)

78 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also, in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers for Drawing Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Research is made into the Records of foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting $1. Models, Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through its inventors have advantages for procuring Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that more is more successful at the Patent Office than the average, and as success is the best proof of skill and ability, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other agency of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the firm during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

If necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there, can be saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

EDMUND BURKE,
Commissioner of Patents

"I have no hesitation in asserting that inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and in every way, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDWARD BUTLER,
Late Commissioner of Patents

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me FIFTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unusually favorable proof of great ability to my interest leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice together applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

EIGHTEENTH YEAR.

Volume VIII - - - New Series.

A NEW VOLUME of this popular Journal commences on the first of January. It is published weekly, and every number contains sixteen pages of useful information, and from five to ten original engravings of new inventions and discoveries, all of which are prepared expressly for its columns.

To the Inventor.

The Scientific American is indispensable to every inventor, as it not only contains illustrated descriptions of nearly all the best inventions as they come out, but much more information. A list of the Claims of all the Patents issued from the United States Patent Office during the week previous, thus giving a correct history of the progress of invention in the country. We also publish, every week, the best scientific journals of Great Britain, France and Germany, thus placing in our power such all that is transpiring in mechanical science and art in these old countries. We shall continue to transfer to our columns such extracts from these journals of whatever we may deem of interest to our readers.

A pamphlet of instruction as to the best mode of obtaining Letters Patent on new inventions is furnished free on application.

Messrs. MUNN & Co. have acted as Patent Solicitors for more than seventeen years, in connection with the publication of the Scientific American, and they refer to 20,000 patentees for whom they have done business.

No charge is made for examining sketches and models of new inventions and for advising inventors as to their patentability.

Chemists, Architects, Millwrights and Farmers,

The Scientific American will be found a most useful journal to them. All the new discoveries in the science of chemistry, new patents, inventions, and the interests of the architect and carpenter are not overlooked; all the new inventions and discoveries appertaining to these pursuits being published from week to week. Useful and practical information pertaining to the interests of millwrights and millowners will be found in the Scientific American which information they can not possibly obtain from any other source. Subjects in which farmers are interested will be found discussed in the Scientific American, most of the improvements in agricultural implements being illustrated in its columns.

WHAT WE ARE TO EXPECT. The Richmond Whig recently enunciated the following—

We have erected many errors in our treatment of the Yankees. Not the least has been in regarding them as something better than they really are. They are of nature inimical and infest only for mischief. They are in open and flagrant rebellion against their natural lords and masters, the gentlemen of the South. The former leniency of their masters only served to aggravate the ferocity of their natures. When they are again reduced to submission and taught to know their place, we must take care to put such measures against them that they will never have an opportunity to play these tricks again."

The above is a slight intimation to our Northern "peace democrats" of the "terms" upon which their natural lords and masters will consent to listen to their propositions of compromise. Both they and all the rest of us must become in reality the white serfs of the southern "gentlemen." If we are admitted into Jeff's kingdom, or if we consent to a separation, the North must become either a province or a humble tributary of the South. As a contemporary says, "the course of some of the democrats to speech-makers furnishes justification of the boast that "the gentlemen of the South" are their "natural lords and masters!" For on bended knees and with fawning sycophancy they beg the Southern States to come back and take all the guarantees they want. For years they have pursued the same abject policy of allowing the south to dictate whatever she chooses. And now as she sees them losing her feet, is it surprising that she considers and calls the Yankees her menials and slaves, and terms our war an insurrection against our "natural lords and masters?" If we consent to a separation, it is easy to see what spirit will govern the victorious South."

The fact is, we must conquer this rebellion, and with it slavery which is its sole incentive, or the rebellion will not only divide the Union but conquer the North. Let every man who is now clamoring for peace, under the idea that peace will bring either compromise with the South and a restored Union, or separation and two friendly confederacies, put away the fatal delusion. Peace, except by subduing the rebellion, will be but the prelude to new and more disastrous assaults upon the North, and new divisions of our territory, or it will be but the consummation of our conquest by the South. Let Northern democrats, who are now urging every ungenerous and bitter means of destroying the people's confidence in the Administration, beware, ere it is too late, of the inevitable consequences of their course. Some of them may suppose they are merely breaking down our Republican Administration—but they are in truth breaking down their own Republican Government—destroying their own country. The only possible salvation for the North is in sustaining the President in the prosecution of the war without cavil as to the means. It can now be done in no other way. The emergency is so great, that we must sustain the Executive or perish. Either that or a revolution at the North—which of itself is ruin, but which seems never likely to be madly plotting by the leaders of the northern democracy. In this case let the democrats reflect that they themselves, their families and their property, WILL ALSO BE RAVOLVED. Reflect ere it be too late—and refuse to follow the traitorous leaders who are now urging you on to the brink of the terrible gulf.

THE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MCCLELLAN. The McDowell Court of Inquiry has brought to light some remarkable documents. One of the most curious of these is a letter of Mr. Lincoln to General McClellan, which was published among our despatches. It was written in the early part of last year, shortly after McClellan's army had moved down to the Peninsula, and primarily refers to the much discussed point as to the troops left for the defence of Washington. Mr. Lincoln writes in the most familiar terms, and makes strategic suggestions and offers military advice and remonstrances, in a style of which this is the first specimen furnished to the public.

One thing noteworthy, says the New York Times, in this letter, with all of the President's private letters and despatches that have come to light—he shows the most earnest anxiety to do the service in his power, the most whole hearted devotion to the country's good, and the most intense desire for ceaseless action in the field against the rebels. Whoever may be responsible for the inaction and delay which has enabled the rebellion to grow from an easily repressed revolt, and erect itself into a great military power, it is not the President. In the course of a few lines he urges McClellan not less than thrice to activity. "I think with you the present time favorable for you to strike a blow," he says; "it is indispensable to me that you strike a blow," he repeats, "you must act," are the closing words. It all this the President has represented the feeling of the whole country, and the final act of the whole army, as it then existed. The advice was not followed, his commands, as Commander in Chief, were disobeyed.

It is now evident that Bragg's whole army fooled the people Kentucky at Murfreesboro more than any body else, by its and its. The rebel chieftain, in consideration, calculated although at The [illegible] will admit [illegible] this week to re-join the old division (Smith's), in rank in the corps de armee in the army of the Potomac. The designated companies of the 1st Maine Cav. Co. E, Captain Jones; G, Captain Gilman; D, Captain Walker; K, Captain Cochrane, with perhaps the addition of Co. I, Captain Cook.

The following resignations have been officially announced at the War Department:

Colonel A. W. Wildes, 10th Maine Regiment, Captain M. C. Withee, 25th; Lieut. Lyman M. Shurtz, 7th; Captain Albion Hersey, 17th.

The following officers have been discharged from service for disability:

Lieut. C. H. Burd, 4th regiment (wounded at Bull Run); Assistant Surgeon A. J. Libby, 24th regiment.

The Governor has appointed William C. Tenney of Aroostook, Assistant Surgeon 23d regiment.

Yours,

CRAVEN

The [illegible] who has offered the sum of $10,000 for General Butler's head, is well now here as [illegible] money not worth and not able to pay 5,000 farthings. He may be described as an old Western promoter described the Devil. He had the Devil took Christ up into a mount and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in [illegible] moments, fell down and worshipped him, while the said enemy did not even a foot of land in the said area.

The Democrats held a mammoth meeting in New York this week. One of their speakers addressed Mr. Vallandigham as "the man who has defied the Administration." Mr. Vallandigham encouraged the President in terms that would pay dust to the heart of rebeldom generally—lauded Jeff Davis, at which the crowd cheered for the arch-rebel a rousing [illegible]. No assembly at the North would have cheered Davis in Secession times. Our new member of Congress, Mr. Pierce, [illegible] in [illegible]—Portland Evening Express.

The above is a slight intimation to our Northern "peace democrats" of the "terms" upon which their natural lords and masters will consent to listen to their propositions of compromise. Both they and all the rest of us must become in reality the white serfs of the southern "gentlemen." If we are admitted into Jeff's kingdom, or if we consent to a separation, the North must become either a province or a humble tributary of the South. As a contemporary says, "the course of some of the democrats to speech-makers furnishes justification of the boast that "the gentlemen of the South" are their "natural lords and masters!" Correspondence of the Whig & Courier.

ARLINGTON, Jan. 20, 1863.

For a few days past I have been absent without leave, which accounts for the non-appearance of my letters. In case I get put under arrest for the offence, you may not hear from me until I am released. Be prepared for that misfortune, for the commandant of the Paddington Guards is determined to make an example of somebody.

From the monthly and quarterly returns of the 5th and 10th regiments I make the following extracts:

Fifth Regiment, Jan. 1, '63. Encamped near White Oak Church, Va. Present for duty, 2 commissioned officers, 268 enlisted men. On extra duty 5 officers 87 men. Sick in camp 49. Aggregate present 441. Died in December, Giles Dore, private, Co. K, at Fredericksburg of wounds; J. C. Shedd, private Co C, at Bolt Plain, of disease; E. C. Perley, private, Co. I, at White Oak Church, of disease.

Tenth Regiment, Jan. 1, '63. Encampment at Fairfax station, Va. Present for duty, 25 commissioned officers, 500 enlisted men. Sick in quarters, 89. On extra duty, 12. Aggregate present, 576. Died, Clinton Fotch, Co. B, at Washington, of wounds; Artemis F. Jordan, Co. ?, at Washington of wounds; Elbridge F. Church, Co. C, at Berlin, Md; John Grealy, Co. ?, at Harper's Ferry, John C. Bridges, G, at Knoxville, Md.; Charles A. Ellis, G, at Berlin, &c., all of disease. Whole number of deaths during quarter ending Dec 31, 8; discharged or disability, 21; discharged by order, 2; absent without leave, 10—under which head I find the following entry: "Charles J. Miles, private Co. F, deserted evening before battle of Antietam—coward—is in State of Maine saying he got a pension for having blown off a finger."

The movements of the Regiment during the month of December are given as follows:

"Headquarters of the regiment were at Berlin Station, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, Sept 10th. Dec. 4th, Co. H marched to Adamsville, Md., from Berlin—distance 13 miles; 10th, regiment concentrated at Harper's Ferry, and marched into Loudon county, Va.,—6 miles; 11th, marched through Hillsboro to Wheatland, Loudon county—11 miles; 12th, marched thro' Leesburg to Goose Creek, Va.,—16 miles; 13th, through Gum Springs to the residence of the rebel General Stuart, Fairfax county,—13 miles; 14th, marched through Fairfax Court House and Station to camp beyond—10 miles; 15th passed over the Occoquan River and beyond to Wolf Run Shoals—6 miles; 16th, marched to Bacon Creek, Prince William county—8 miles; 17th, returned to north of Occoquan River, via Wolf Run Shoals—8 miles; 18th, returned to camp left on the morning of the 15th, near Fairfax Station—4 miles, 28th, marched to Wolf Run Shoals, Occoquan River—5 miles; the regiment was sent back ten miles to prevent a raid of rebel cavalry upon the camp of the brigade; 29th, the regiment was under arms early in the morning to prevent the cavalry raid—none came."

Joseph L. Knight, an unassigned recruit, is mustered as follows: "His never reported at the regiment, and his enlistment was undoubtedly a fraud upon the government."

The returns of this regiment are models of precision and neatness, and are unequalled in almost any respect by those of any other regiment in the field.

Tomorrow, if I have time, I propose to open a budget of unpleasant truths concerning the camp for convalescent soldiers at Washington. Unless the statements in my possession are outrageously exaggerated, there are some scandals in power at that camp, who need looking after, and while alluding to scoundrels, allow me, through your columns, to notify the noble warrior from the 18th regiment, who was recently discharged from the York Hospital for heart disease, that if he does not forward to the Adjutant General's Office, the officers overcoat he stole at the Eastern Railroad depot in Boston, a few days ago, I will make his heart wiggle worse than it yet has, by publishing in connection with the affair his name and description as it appears on the descriptive roll in the office of the Adjutant General. The fact that you knew you were robbing a sick soldier when you needed the garment enhances your rascality, and the public is becoming acquainted with you, will be greatly benefitted.

A battalion of the "Seventh," under command of Lieut. Col. Conner, will leave Portland this week to re-join its old division (Smith's), in rank in the corps de armee in the army of the Potomac. The designated companies of the battalion are, Co. E, Captain Jones; G, Captain Gilman; D, Captain Walker; K, Captain Cochrane, with perhaps the addition of Co. I, Captain Cook.

HAVE YOU A FRIEND IN THE ARMY? If so, subscribe for the Weekly Whig & Courier, and furnish him with all the local news to be found in the Daily, and also a vast amount of reading in each number, worth half a dozen letters.

Nothing can be more pleasant to the soldier than to receive a paper from home, and thus you can send him for the low price of $1,50 per year. Eight months for a dollar. Six months for 75 cents. Papers mailed from our office directly to soldiers.

SKATING GROUND VS. FLAME. We trust our citizens will consign the skaters by keeping teams away from the skating grounds. It seriously interferes with, and will eventually spoil the sport unless the practice of driving about is discontinued. We cannot think that persons would willingly do anything to interfere with the amusement, and hope that in the future no teams will be seen between the mouth of the stream and the bridge.

Report of the Secretary of the Bangor Branch of the Sanitary Commission.

The Bangor Branch of the Sanitary Commission was organized January 6, 1862. Previous to that time a few efficient and patriotic women had met weekly to work for the soldiers, but the number was so small, they could render comparatively but little aid.

A need was felt in the community of a more general and systematic organization, in order to obtain the assistance of a greater number that had heretofore been engaged in this noble work. The results of a year's experiment, will show how far this has been effectual.

There were some difficulties to be encountered at the outset, such as are experienced in every new undertaking, but these were counterbalanced by the hearty co-operation of so many friends of the cause, that this Branch organized sanguine of success.

Of the U. S. Sanitary Commission no commendation is needed. If every woman in the loyal States would aid in this great work, there would be no destitution in any of the army hospitals.

The catalogue appended, it is hoped, will prove to the generous friends of the Commission, that their donations have not been misapplied.

The members of this Association most cordially tender their thanks to all those who have given so liberally, their time, money, and those numerous articles that have comforted so many sick and wounded soldiers, and alleviated their sufferings.

DESERTED WHITE GOODS TO A FREEDMAN.—The Lewiston Journal says that on the first Sabbath of January, Jerome Bates of Durham, a young man of about 18 years, started on skates on the Androscoggin, to go to Little River, a few miles below his father's house, to attend a funeral. His friends, ascertaining that he was not present at the funeral, made search on the river for him, and found a place in the ice where had been broken once, and the marks of skates to the edge and none beyond. With evident signs of a terrible drowning of the object—but no other trace of the young man. Persistent search was made in the river at that point, but nothing further was found.

☞ Judge Goodenow is holding court at Portland this week, commencing the regular January term.

Collector's Office, 4th Collection District of Maine, Bangor, Jan. 19, 1863.

To the Public:

The United States excise law requires that the Revenue Stamps designated for the several instruments, matters and things enumerated in schedules marked B and C, annexed to said law, shall be affixed thereto by the parties who shall make, sign or issue them, or for whose use or benefit the same shall be made, used or issued; and imposes a penalty of fifty dollars upon every person who shall make, sign or issue any instrument, document, paper or thing of any kind or description whatever, upon which a duty is imposed, without the same being duly stamped or having thereon an adhesive stamp to denote the duty charged; and the law imposes the duty upon the Collectors of Internal Revenue to prosecute for the recovery of any sum or sums which may be forfeited, by virtue of the provisions of said law.

Having obtained a quantity of stamps which are now ready for delivery, and having been advised by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that they can be had in sufficient quantities to supply the demands of the public, it becomes my duty to require a compliance with the law, and all persons or corporations are required to take notice thereof and govern themselves accordingly.

And all persons are requested to give information of any and all violations of the act aforesaid.

A. A. WING,
Collector.

FATAL ACCIDENT. We learn from Mr Cushman that a Mr. Carle of Sangerville, was killed at Dexter on Monday last. He was coming in to town on a load of bark, when it slewed, tipped over, and threw him off, the back of his head striking the frozen ground. He lived but about three-quarters of an hour after the accident. Mr. Carle was a farmer, and leaves a wife and several children. His age was about 45 years.

☞ The St Croix river closed on Tuesday, January 6th, but is open again; vessels can come to the head of navigation.

☞ Counterfeit notes on Bank of Worcester, Mass., well executed, are afloat. Also fives on Charter Oak Bank, Hartford, Conn.

☞ They are getting up a "Skating Park" at Lewiston. Quite metropolitan in their terms.—Bangor has a first rate skating privilege—but never a "park."

☞ The Clarion says that in speaking of the death of Mr. Harding of that town, from being thrown down by a bandsaw, that the performance was premeditated by the boys, merely to trip up Mr H. The Clarion says this wanton outrage upon Mr. Harding brands these boys with the crime of murder, not perhaps premeditated but none the less murder, than if they had taken his life in any other unlawful manner.

AID TO FAMILIES OF VOLUNTEERS. The Lewiston Journal has obtained the following figures from Augusta:

Up to Saturday morning, 325 cities, towns and plantations had sent to the Secretary of State's office, accounts of their expenditures in aid of the support of the families of volunteers, under the act of March, 1862. These accounts foot up within a small margin of $200,000, and although there are nearly 200 more towns and plantations from which no return has been received, yet they are mainly very small places or towns, which have extended no aid to such families. It is evident, therefore, that the amount expended since March 18th, will reach about $260,000, or about 40 cents to an inhabitant, or about $7 to each volunteer from Maine in the service of the United States. We have examined the accounts of all the towns in Androscoggin County, and also the leading or oftener towns in other parts of the State, and obtained the following statistics, which we have arranged in a table, putting against each town the first the population, second the amount expended for soldiers' families since March 18th, and third the number of volunteers from the town, who have entered the service of the government, whether in regiments from Maine, from other States, or in the regular army:

BATCHELOR'S HAIR DYE.

THE BEST IN THE WORLD!

WILLIAM A. BATCHELOR'S celebrated Hair Dye produces a color not to be distinguished from nature—instantly, so imparting to the hair, at least, remedies the ill effects of bad dyes, and invigorates the hair for life. Capture of a Vessel Owned by George Saunders, Loaded with Goods for the Confederates Destruction of Rebel Salt Works.

Rumor that a Portion of the Army of the Potomac is to be Moved West.

Additional Foreign Items.

WASHINGTON, 20th

The Navy Department has received despatches from Commodore Harwood, commanding the Potomac flotilla, dated 19th, stating that the Leslie arrived at Hampton Roads on Sunday, with the steamer Hampton of Baltimore in tow, which was captured by the Currituck on the morning of the 13th, in Dividing Creek.

The Commodore states that the vessel cleared light ostensibly for the oyster trade, but took in a cargo at Baltimore.

She had on board several passengers who, from letters found on board, appeared to be persons who had been in the habit of passing to and from Virginia.

At the time of the capture of the Hampton a canoe at the same place escaped, but was afterwards taken at Indian Creek, not, as written, until her crew had escaped to the woods and the principal part of her cargo, it is supposed, had been thrown overboard.

Commodore Harwood also reports that before these occurrences the Currituck broke up, for the present, an establishment for supplying salt to Richmond by destroying the kettles used in the manufacturing.

It appears from the report of Acting Master Seamker, commanding the Currituck, that when he arrived at Dividing Creek he was informed by a negro southwest branch the e was a large manufactory of salt and a steam mill owned by a man named Oscar Daley, who had been extensively engaged in supplying the rebels with salt.

The commander of the Currituck proceeded thither and sent a party on shore and destroyed all the kettles &c., with the exception of the boiler, and left word to the proprietor to discontinue the obstruction under penalty of complete destruction of the mill and a large amount of lumber contiguous.

Dividing Creek is one of the points to which George N Saunders addressed his correspondents to make an arrest.

Mr. Burley, Indian agent for the Yankton Sioux, which tribe has been friendly toward the Government throughout the Indian difficulties, reached here to-day. His name to Washington, with a view to urge the proper department to take precautionary measures against trouble may possibly occur in the Spring with the same party of Sioux and other marauders of that tribe He states that at present there need be no apprehension of any difficulty.

Mr. Burley brought with him as far as Sioux City, Iowa, the white passengers who were captured by the Sioux and ransomed by our Government.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has submitted his first statement concerning the transactions of the Bureau, from which it appears that the entire number of persons employed to assessing and collecting revenue is 4882. He has not the means of estimating at the present time, with confidence, the amount of revenue which will be derived under the excise law of July, 1862.

During the first month it has caused a careful investigation, to be instituted into the several sources of revenue and an estimate to be made of the amount which will be derived from each. According to this there will be received from all sources except stamp duties, during the fiscal year ending June next, the sum of $61,777,799. He estimates that the receipts from stamp duties during the same period, will amount to $16,000,000; making an aggregate sum of $76,-777,799.

It may be asserted that, without material change in the business of the country, the revenue from the same source for the fiscal years 1863 and 1864 will not be less than $151,000,000. The estimates of receipts and expenditures show a cost of assessing and collecting and expending taxes under the present system, will be two and forty-one one hundredths per cent. The commissioner has full confidence that in States now acknowledging the authority of the constitution, the expense of assessing and collecting will not exceed 3 per cent. He makes many important suggestions, including modifications of law and appointment of solicitors or legal advisers.

WASHINGTON, 20th

The Secretary of Interior has sent a recommendation to the House for the establishment of a bureau of statistics, with draft of a bill. The office of Superintendent of Census is abolished under the bill.

NEW YORK, 20th.

A special despatch to the Evening Post from Washington states that schooner Hampton, with a cargo for the rebels, has been captured in Dividing Creek.

The vessel took in her cargo at Baltimore, according to instructions received by her owners from the notorious rebel George N. Saunders.

NEW YORK, 20th.

The Champion mail steamer for Aspinwall, has been detained until Thursday.

The Post has a rumor that Gen. Halleck has determined to send a large part of the army of the Potomac to the West.

The Board of Underwriters have agreed to reduce war risks on American vessels from 5 to 2 per cent.

The Commercial's special Washington despatch says the House Military Committee have adopted the resolution in favor of the construction of a submarine telegraph along the southern coast.

The following is additional news per Arabia

The Bulletin de Paris says Mr. Dayton had a private audience with the Emperor on the 7th. Napoleon is said to have recommended an armistice in America. On the previous day Mr. Dayton had a conference on the same subject with the Minister of Foreign Affairs

The Paris correspondent of the Times says—Since the defeat at Fredericksburg the Emperor has again turned his thoughts to American affairs. The correspondent is informed, on good authority, that steps have been taken or are on the point of being taken, to resume the overtures already made unsuccessfully to Mr. Lincoln's government, and the time is hoped, with prospect of better result.

The English government still persevered in refusing to interfere in any way.

The Army and Navy Gazette says the confederate Generals have been ever praised; that to stand and fight has been their great strategy Not one of them seems to have made a campaign with a purpose. Not one has had the capacity to understand the value of victory. They have done anything but follow events and make good use of the energy and zeal of their soldiers—Let some leader arise on either side who can lead a few squadrons to press one of these broken armies and war will not long languish in a bloody trail of gigantic skirmishes

On New Year's Eve an address was voted to President Lincoln at a large meeting a London, held under the auspices of the Emancipation Society

Minister Adams, in acknowledging the receipt of the address for transmission, says he has no doubt the President will receive it as an encouraging testimonial of independent witnesses, to the manner in which he is endeavoring to do his duty to his country and mankind.

An address of sympathy to Mr. Lincoln was receiving signatures at Birmingham. It expresses a strong belief in the Federal cause as that of humanity, religion and freedom, and hopes for its success

The Paris Moniteur publishes an account of the past e of Fredericksburg written by a military eye witness. He says the Federals marched with a consciousness of impending disaster. The rapidity of the Confederate movements is described as marvelous. The Federals, on the contrary, are represented as having moved with slowness, and the incapacity of their generals is spoken of

Mr. Washburne withdrew his motion to that effect, and the Message was referred to the committee on ways and means.

On motion of Mr. E Blogg of Illinois, the committee on postal and military railroads between Washington and New York, were empowered to examine witnesses under oath as to the propriety cost, expediency &c.

Mr. Washburn's motion to postpone was disagreed to 83 against 14.

A resolution declaring Mr. Voorhees not entitled to his seat was adopted

Mr. Maynard raised a question that the resolution expelled Mr. Vallandigham was the constitution in such cases required a vote of two-thirds.

The correspondent is informed, on good authority, that steps have been taken or are on the point of being taken, to resume the overtures already made unsuccessfully to Mr. Lincoln's government, and the time is hoped, with prospect of better result.

The English government still persevered in refusing to interfere in any way.

The Army and Navy Gazette says the confederate Generals have been ever praised; that to stand and fight has been their great strategy Not one of them seems to have made a campaign with a purpose. Not one has had the capacity to understand the value of victory. They have done anything but follow events and make good use of the energy and zeal of their soldiers—Let some leader arise on either side who can lead a few squadrons to press one of these broken armies and war will not long languish in a bloody trail of gigantic skirmishes

On New Year's Eve an address was voted to President Lincoln at a large meeting a London, held under the auspices of the Emancipation Society

Minister Adams, in acknowledging the receipt of the address for transmission, says he has no doubt the President will receive it as an encouraging testimonial of independent witnesses, to the manner in which he is endeavoring to do his duty to his country and mankind.

An address of sympathy to Mr. Lincoln was receiving signatures at Birmingham. It expresses a strong belief in the Federal cause as that of humanity, religion and freedom, and hopes for its success

The Paris Moniteur publishes an account of the past e of Fredericksburg written by a military eye witness. He says the Federals marched with a consciousness of impending disaster. The rapidity of the Confederate movements is described as marvelous. The Federals, on the contrary, are represented as having moved with slowness, and the incapacity of their generals is spoken of Ways and Means, proposed amendments to the first section, which were agreed to, so as to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to borrow from time to time, $300,000,000 for the current fiscal year, and $600,000,000 for the next fiscal year, and issue therefor coupons or registered bonds, payable at the pleasure of the government, after 20 years from date, and of denominations of not less than $50, as he may deem expedient, bearing interest at rates not exceeding 6 per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually in coin.

Mr. Thomas of Massachusetts offered amendment, which was agreed to, making the coupons or registered bonds payable at the pleasure of the government after 20 years from date, in coin.

Mr. Spaulding moved to strike out the restriction of sale of bonds at not less than par, so that the Secretary may, in his discretion dispose of them at any time upon the best terms he can obtain

Pending the consideration of this amendment the committee rose

Adjourned.

NOMINATION OF SENATOR WADE.—Cleaveland, Ohio, Jan. 17 The Union caucus at Columbus nominated Mr. Wade for Senator last night, on the first ballot

RUMORED CAPTURE OF WILMINGTON A Fort Royal letter says there was a large fleet of war vessels at that place on the 10th, and there were indications of lively times. It was rumored—the report coming through rebel sources—that our iron clads had attacked and captured Wilmington.

The following is part of some intercepted rebel despatches from England

Mr. Memminger explains the schemes devised for raising money in England by the hypothecation of cotton in the Confederate States. The modus operandi by which that cotton may be transmitted to British naval vessels from the blockaded ports to be employed in England for war purchases, and payments receive elucidation at the hands of the Confederate Secretary of the Treasury, while the limits to which a portion of the funds is to be put finds explanation in the accompanying correspondence of the Secretary of the Navy. The utility of iron clad vessels, and the means by which they are to be procured in England form the burden of these interesting papers

From these papers we also learn the names of the financial agents of the Southern Confederacy in England and what houses are ready to fill the military and naval orders from Richmond. It may surprise some persons to find out that Mr. Gov. N. Saunders is playing a top part in the negotiation, looking to the construction of iron clads in England for the Southern Confederacy.

☞ Died in Regimental Hospital near Belle Plains, Va., Nathan J Fife late of Tremont, Me, aged 31 years, of congestion of lungs Mr. Fife was a private in the 10th regiment, a good soldier, and a man of much promise

The 10th is rapidly gaining in numbers, from the list of absent, sick and wounded, and is again in the field for active service whenever real work is needed.

Lieutenant Colonel Tilden and Major Farnham are very popular with us, indeed so much so that we want none others to lead our way.

JOHN D COMEY,
Lieutenant, Co. H, 16th Me. Vols.

DISGRACEFUL. The Machias Union this week, if possible, is more villainous and treasonable than any of its predecessors. We have before us a copy of the South Carolina Guardian which is like snow compared with this treasonable, base and dastardly sheet. Such villains will soon be looked upon by loyal men as the Benedict Arnolds of the present day, and their names, like those of the Tories of the Revolution, will be a bye-word and reproach in years to come

FIRE. On Saturday morning the saw and grist mill at Presque Isle, belonging to John Allen, Esq., were entirely destroyed by fire—The saw mill was a large building, had one saw, a clapboard, shingle and lath machine, all in good order. The grist mill was a two story building, the first floor of which was used for grinding grain, the mill having three runs of stones and the second story for manufacturing lumber. Mr. Allen's loss must be nearly if not quite $6000, upon which there was no insurance It is not known how the fire caught. The loss is a heavy one for the place, and bear or by Mr. Allen.

MONEY, VERY.—F. O. J. Smith's paper, the Portland Advertiser, one of the most bitter old Hunker anti-administration papers in the State, thus allows a correspondent at Augusta, probably Smith himself, to puff the Hon. F. O. J. Smith, Independent Representative from Westbrook:

But this Legislature has able men in it. The ablest man among them, is, undoubtedly, Hon F. O J Smith Thus far, he has not favored those who are waiting, with the sound of his voice. Nevertheless he will be down upon them in some shape before long, so that there will be no mistaking what he means.

An exchange says that in skating upon a pond at Bloomfield, New Jersey, some days since, a boy named Higgins fell through the ice, remaining in the water out of sight some fifteen minutes, when he was taken out for dead. A village physician, however, applied galvanic battery, and after six hours of labor, succeeded in restoring animation

GREAT MEETING IN CHICAGO. A public meeting was called in Chicago for last Monday evening, to endorse the President's proclamation. The spacious Bryan Hall was filled at an early hour, and so many assembled, that it was necessary to have meetings in the First Baptist Church, in Lower Bryan Hall and in Metropolitan Hall, and even then the multitude could not all be accommodated.

The following extract gives a graphic description of the battle between Bragg and Rosecrans

The generalship of Rosecrans won the field after the rout of his right wing had given the rebels almost certain assurance of success. And if the generalship of weak resolution, so, too, was the bravery with which the gallant subordinate officers and privates of the centre and left stood up to stay the retreat of McCook's broken division and stem the rebel surge as it came confidently on. Now Negley and Rosecrans and Crittenden went into the fight, the former with his hat upon the point of his sword, as he led the line, the impetuous charge of Friday.

Rebel valor was then no match for northern coarse. Breckenridge's and Polk's divisions went down like corn before the sickle. Negley, injured Hardee, who attacked McCook and drove him for a while, was lying over (unbold), leaving thousands of wounded, dead and dying from their terrible fire, while the rest of Rosecrans' left prepared for their reception. The rest is glorious. Gen. Negley sustained 30 wounds and died on the 3d at Frederickburg regimental

Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

[illegible] Sarsaparilla [illegible] Scrofula [illegible] Blotches, Pustules, Ulcerations, Tetter, Salt-rheum, Ringworm, Boils, Blackheads, Humors of the Skin [illegible] Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa, Irregularities, Suppressions, Painful Menstruation, Uterine Diseases, Incipient Consumption, Debility, and all Complaints arising from Impure Blood or Vitiated Humors.

From Mrs. Sarah E. Rice, a well-known and much esteemed lady of Dunnellon, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very much decorated. Nothing afforded her any relief until we procured your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the properly known firm of Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of excellent paper in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time, but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Geo. Smith, Surgeon, Chatham St., New York.

"Dr. Ayer: I ordered [illegible] of your Sarsaparilla and Cathartic Pills for a case of erysipelas and I have [illegible] now cured a patient of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the Sarsaparilla. Will you be so [illegible] to the profession as you can for the people."

From A. E. Ambrose, Cincinnati, Ohio.

"For fifteen years, I had the tetter's eruption on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and no [illegible] hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The disease grew so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took five bottles, and one of your Pills. Together they have cured me. My arm is as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Moore, P. P. J., of Scarville, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for years, Effectually, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Hervey Seckler, Esq., the able editor of the Jeffersonville, Indiana, Democratic Pioneer.

"I was only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face and actually blinded him. [illegible] A skillful physician, capable of the highest and most successful practice, attended my child, but all his medicines, without any material effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands to keep him from tearing off the scabs, which covered his face, and during which time he lost the sight of both eyes entirely. We were informed that the child must die. [illegible] SARSAPARILLA, and in [illegible] commenced to get better. Continuing the medicine, the inside of both eyes was cleared, and in a few weeks the child was restored to perfect health, and to-day is as handsome a child as there is in Madison county. This was [illegible] months."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

From Dr. Bowen, Sheriff of Lower Aldboro' etc.

"I have found your Sarsaparilla a most powerful and effectual remedy for the worst forms of Syphilis, and for the [illegible] disease [illegible] of other medicines. Its properties are unrivalled by any other compound that I have ever prescribed."

From Dr. B. Fetsch, M. D., an eminent physician of Lowell, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"Dr. Ayer: My dear Sir: I have found your Sarsaparilla an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both in the primary and secondary type, and effectual in such cases that were [illegible] to obtain any relief from other remedies. I do not know what more to say, but am certainly of opinion, when your Sarsaparilla is [illegible] it is required."

From A. Ives Lee, of New Brunswick, N. J., a highly influential citizen, who has suffered by the abuse of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew [illegible] confirmed for years [illegible] all to no effect [illegible] of Ayer's Sarsaparilla [illegible] cured him in a much shorter time than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him."

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness,

[illegible] produced by internal Scrofulous Ulcerations are very often cured by the alterative effect of this Sarsaparilla. [illegible] some acquaintance with the subject, the skillful [illegible] of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrell, of Chautauque, N. Y.

"I have found your Sarsaparilla an excellent [illegible] in [illegible] of female complaints. Many cases of leucorrhœa, Leucorrhœa, Inflammation, Ulceration, and debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few of all the [illegible] where its effects are properly applied to all extent."

I feel, therefore, willing to allow the publication of her name, which is [illegible].

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a severe debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by the use of four bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia, which are caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their [illegible] virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended upon to do all that they have ever done.

Prepared by J. C. AYER, M. D., & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by

This peculiar taint or infection which [illegible] all Scrofulous diseases, is variously developed in different constitutions, according to the [illegible] of the blood, which [illegible] the fluid becomes [illegible] to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and [illegible] the system to fall into the order and decay. The scrofulous complaints [illegible] are [illegible] by hereditary descent [illegible] parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the Lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affection. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With sweet, pure, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that the [illegible] has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the sufferers it [illegible]. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Boils or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tubercelous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole class of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be found the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The great importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its use you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out in any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.
